TRITON DTS 6M
TRACTION TABLE

Manually Adjusted Pelvic tilt section (0° to 20°)

Remote control for automated upper and lower table movement

Triton DTS® Traction Unit sold separately

Repositional head piece

Adjustable leg section 0° to 45°

Foldaway grab bar

Adjustable arm rests (-30° To +40°)

Pivoting Traction Mount

Anatomical Axilla posts

Easy adjustment levers

Lock/unlock traction table movement

Raise and lower foot pedal

4 Wheel locking casters

Digital high resolution color touch screen that pivots 270°.

Pull string with variable motor speed pulls and release (30%, 50%, and 100%).

Patient switch button for emergency stop button.

- Static, intermittent, and cycling traction
- Independent timers allow easy customization of traction pulls in progressive, regressive, and traction phases
- Pretension step eases the patient into traction to prevent muscle guarding and pretest patient's tolerance to traction force
- Full color graphic library complete with visual tutorial of belting techniques, anatomical images and common pathologies
- Clinical Protocols provided for both cervical and lumbar conditions
- 80 User defined protocol slots
- Easily store treatment parameters, pain scales, and pain maps on
- Patient Data Cards & sEMGu module with accessories
- 5 Decompression Traction System (DTS) pull patters that mimic manual traction pulls

CHATTANOOGA®

Traction and Decompression Therapy

enovis™